

PHRASAL VERBS WITH 'HAVE'

phrasal verb	meaning	example have around/round/over	invite someone to your house	We couldn't come on Saturday; we had our grandson around for the day.
have in	have supplies or get someone to do work for you	We are having the plumbers in this week to fix the kitchen sink.
have it away	have sex with someone	My neighbour had it away with her husband's brother. He found out yesterday.
have it in for	hold a grudge against someone	Do you have it in for him? Whenever I mention his name you make a funny face.
have off	take time off work	I had 2 weeks off last month. I'm not allowed any more holiday.
have on	are wearing/be in possession of or an electrical device is switched on	Yes, Kirsty had on those green trousers again. She needs to go shopping.
have up	arrest someone and/or prosecute	Stop carrying a knife in your bag, they'll have you up if you're not careful.

