

PHRASAL VERBS WITH 'MAKE'

phrasal verb	meaning	example
make do with	manage with limited or inadequate resources	I forgot to buy carrots, we'll have to make do with peas and broccoli.
make for/towards	head in a certain direction	The thief grabbed the money bag and made towards the door.
make into	change into something else	The old corner shop has been made into flats.
make it up to	be nice to/do something for someone as you did something wrong	I made it up to my girlfriend for forgetting her birthday by buying her an expensive necklace.
make off with	steal something	Watch those two guys. I think they're going to make off with something.
make out	pretend, kiss and fondle or be able to understand something	Paul is making out he's an angel but, I saw him steal £5 from my mum's purse.
make up	invent something or stop being angry and forgive someone	Jamie got an A* for making up a great story about futuristic robots.
make up for	compensate	Banks made up for his own goal by scoring a hat trick.
make up to	increase a sum or put right something you did wrong	I'll buy Wayne some aftershave then that'll make his present up to £20.

