

PHRASAL VERBS WITH 'SLIP'

phrasal verb	meaning	example
slip away	leave without being noticed or lose an opportunity	City are 2-0 down at half-time. Their title hopes are rapidly slipping away.
slip by	lose an opportunity or pass without being seen	My dreams of going to Oxford are slipping by.
slip down	slide to the floor	My mum slipped down on the ice and broke her arm.
slip in	secretly include something	We can't take the kids tonight. I think the comedian is going to slip in some rude jokes.
slip into	change your clothes or slowly get into a bad state or condition	After the war, the country slipped into recession.
slip off	leave discretely, easily remove clothing or slide off a surface	The car slipped off the road and down the embankment.
slip on	quickly put on clothing or fall on a slippery surface	Let me slip on a jacket then I'm ready for our dog walk.
slip out	leave	We slipped out when Harry opened the whiskey.
slip through	be accepted even though it shouldn't or escape through a gap	The coin slipped through my fingers and fell down the drain.
slip up	make a mistake	I hope I don't slip up and tell my dad about his surprise party.

