

LIST OF IDIOMS WITH THE VERB GROW

idiom	meaning	example
absence makes the heart grow fonder	being away from someone you love makes you appreciate them more	Stevie is going away for five weeks, we'll see if absence makes the heart grow fonder.
don't let the grass grow under one's feet	hurry, act now, don't wait	Brian is a useless employee. We've lost so much business by him letting the grass grow.
grow a backbone	stop being a wimp and stick up for yourself and your beliefs	Melody should grow a backbone. She isn't employed to make the coffees.
money doesn't grow on trees	money is limited	My kids think money grows on trees, they want the latest things all the time.

