

LIST OF IDIOMS WITH THE VERB LIVE

idiom	meaning	example
learn to live with something	accept and adapt to something unpleasant	I've learnt to live with my husband's snoring because I love him.
live and learn	someone has survived and learnt from a bad/unpleasant experience	I didn't know I needed a heater for my tropical fish, you live and learn.
live for the moment	concentrate on the present, don't worry about the future	We live for the moment and spend all our wages on having fun.
live for the weekend	someone's life revolves around the weekend's activities	Tori lives for the weekend, she loves being sociable and travelling.
live from hand to mouth	very poor, have just enough money to survive	We are living from hand to mouth at the moment and we have another baby on the way.
live in cloud cuckoo land	a fantasy land	You're living in cloud cuckoo land if you think your wife will take you back.
live it up	enjoy yourself and have fun	It's time to stop living it up. I need to stop partying and work more.
live on borrowed time	have survived longer than expected and won't for much longer	My grandad was given 6 months to live. We're now in month 8, he's living on borrowed time.
live out of a suitcase	never unpack one's items when travelling	The one thing I hate about travelling is living out of a suitcase.

