

GUTS IDIOMS AND EXPRESSIONS

idiom	meaning	example
be gutted	extremely disappointed or upset	My kitten got hit by a car and killed today. The kids are going to be gutted when I tell them.
gut instinct/feeling	the feeling you have in your body when you know you are right, trust your feelings	I went with my gut feeling in the end and chose Oxford university.
have someone's guts for garters	severely punish someone	My boy has taken my Porsche without permission, I'll have his guts for garters.
have the guts	be brave enough to do something	We haven't got the guts to tell mum we hate her cooking.

