

TENNIS IDIOMS AND EXPRESSIONS

idiom	meaning	example
ball in one`s court	someone else has to make the decision or deal with the problem/responsibility	I paid for his rehab and got him a job; the ball is in his court now.
in full swing	operating fully, the level of activity is at its highest	I love this time of year; the football season is in full swing.
rally around/round	unite to support someone/something	Becca`s son was killed in a car accident. We all need to rally round and show our support.

